

Supporting File 1: PMOMax overview

Prepared for the HFS Services-as-Software Awards 2026. Updated May 19, 2026.

Product

PMOMax is an AI-assisted project initiation platform from Katalyst Street.

What it does

It turns raw project material into a structured PID workspace with linked planning, governance, compliance, risk, budget, stakeholder, and exportable outputs.

Confirmed capabilities

- paste or upload source project material
- load full demo data
- guided create mode
- structured PID sections
- objectives and KPIs
- scope, constraints, assumptions, and dependencies
- schedule and Gantt view
- people, resources, and budget
- risks, issues, and communications
- governance and compliance sections
- AI assistant working against live project context
- help and user guide
- export to Word, PDF, structured data files, and packaged outputs
- public Google Cloud Marketplace listing
- verified Marketplace deployment readiness
- Marketplace usage-based billing validation

Why it matters

Many teams begin projects with fragmented material and inconsistent templates. PMOMax gives them one controlled surface to structure that work before execution begins.

Public availability

PMOMax is live on Google Cloud Marketplace:
